

Be Your Man

VERSE 1

Can't you feel, feel the beat,
I can feel it differently,
Black and white, what you mean,
I am seeing colours meet,
Fifty shades, shades of blue,
None of them, can describe you,
Why are we here tonight,
If we see differently,
Maybe I should give it a chance,
But baby I can't give you that,
I can't put this in the past,
Why do opposites attract,
You say you want the same as me,
But it's clear to see,
You'd prefer to run free,

PRE-CHORUS

Something's telling me,
To leave this alone,
But something deep down,
Doesn't want to let go,

HOOK

I've been rolling the dice,
And playing my cards,
Hoping that I have got a good hand,
If I see you tonight,
Will you fall into my arms,
Baby will I be your man,

VERSE 2

Baby should we give it a shot,
If you're half in the door,
Then I would rather not,
Waste my time
Cause your views don't align with what I,
I got in mind, So can I,
Get an answer tonight,

Be Your Man

[Solo]

PRE-CHORUS

Something's telling me,
To just walk away,
But something deep down,
Is telling me to stay

HOOK

I've been rolling the dice,
And playing my cards,
Hoping that I have got a good hand,
If I see you tonight,
Will you fall into my arms,
I've been rolling the dice,
And playing my cards,
Hoping that I have got a good hand,
If I see you tonight,
Will you fall into my arms,
Baby will I be,
Your man,
